

Dear FCC Chair and Commissioners, Pai, Clyburn, & O’Rielly,

I strongly favor ensuring “Net Neutrality” and not allowing ISPs to sell, trade or use my browsing history and any other information about my use of the internet. We do not allow telephone companies to record our conversations or sell our calling data to private entities, so it should be with ISPs.

John Raeder